- Discussion/Vote on whether there is public access to the meeting through adequate, alternative means

OPEN FORUM: No one spoke.

ORAL REPORTS: Superintendent's Report

- Thanks to all who are making virtual learning possible from teachers, to admin, to students. Third quarter was extended for a week for grades to go in. Communications will continue to be distributed to keep parents and the community informed. Meal service has continued and the number served continues to go up. Approx. 70 meals have been distributed daily. We are trying to keep everyone employed and are keeping positions busy and will keep everyone updated in the weeks to come. As far as April School Committee Meeting, still working to see when it will happen. Right now, the committee is going to hold the time and see where the budget process takes us. Talked a little about PowerSchool issue, how it was rectified and how several students and teachers can now use Zoom for classroom learning.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE BUSINESS:

1. Approval of FY21 Budget
2. Approval Displacement of Certified Staff
3. Approval of the modified School Calendar

MEETING ADJOURNED: 5:39 PM
