13. Right to Appeal

The Narragansett School Committee recognizes its responsibility to and the rights of employees, parents, and/or students, to appeal decisions concerning the implementation of school department policies and procedures.

All employees shall have the right to appeal a decision made by an administrator to the next higher authority and through appropriate successive steps to the School Committee. This appeal should be in writing and may become part of a grievance procedure as outlined in the collective bargaining agreements.

A parent(s) or student(s) shall have the right to appeal a decision made by an administrator to the next higher authority and through appropriate successive steps to the School Committee. The appeal should be in writing, but may be accepted orally if the situation requires a more timely response.
